- Busy start to the term. Huge thanks to Joely and the team for all their hard work. Especially when I was away.
- Joely had to do a bit of hunting and gathering to get supplies.
- Two weeks ago I was invited to attend a National Round Table forum to discuss the future of school canteens. It was very interesting to hear people's ideas and challenges. We had four questions to answer. What do Canteens mean to you? What are the challenges that you face running a canteen? What are the factors that help you succeed? If there was something that would help support you in running a successful canteen in your region/area what would it be?
- There will be a statement compiled from all of the information gathered. And they are attempting to bring about some change in legislation with regard to the whole of Australia being under the same standards and food regulation. Currently each state is different.
- I was one of the only regional representatives.
- Last week will forever be known as disaster week. We had some major plumbing issues with sinks backing up as well as waste water coming out of the floor. We blew the light in the coldroom, our cash register did a hard reset and had to be reprogramed on a Friday at service time. And we ran out of gas. All of our three phase power triped one morning meaning we couldn't turn on any of our Baine Maries. It was all a bit much!
- Troy helped us get a plumber after many phone calls to QBuild and they cleared the problem. Our floors have never been cleaner. And Troy is onto QBuild around finding a truck that can reach the grease trap for regular maintenance.
- I have been researching updated POS systems as a result of our failed cash register. I am chasing quotes and trying to get all the information together as we need to update from our old cash registers to a newer system. The challenge is finding one that doesn't require the use of the school internet and has stand alone cellular data. Hopefully next month I will have all of the info gathered to resent.
- We have lost some stock recently due to our storage room being so hot. Troy had an electrician come and fix the air vent.
- Next Tuesday 18th there is a trade show from our suppliers on at the windmill. It's a very interesting afternoon with lots of info on new products. So the five of us are going to attend to gather all the info, network with other schools to see what they are doing and eat some yummy food.
